

You are crying inside, but there are no tears, but there is sorrow. A sorrow so deep and so pitiful. You have been reduced to the lowest form--- the plan of the enemy

You are only a shell, now holding a lost soul, what could have been filled with God, was made for God and all the glories of heaven, but now in an unredeemable state. Worse than losing your best friend, worse sorrow than losing anything, you have lost the reason you were created.

There is nothing like this sorrow, this loneliness, this darkness, even the deepest pit on earth does not compare to it, for it is spiritual, and it is final, it is forever and forever.

One day I heard the gospel put this way....

When Adam sinned and got separated from God because of his new sinful nature, the God of Love, would not stand for it. He missed his fellowship with man and came up with a plan to reinstate man to Himself forever. All man would have to do is to believe in what Jesus did for us on the cross. He made it so easy for us, not to go to this place called hell;

I really like it put that way. Now after everything we know about hell, do you really want to go there, do you really want to lose your precious soul? It must be very valuable because the devil and God are fighting for it.

Now say this winning prayer, and don't lose your soul, give it to Jesus, He will keep it safe for you.

Lord Jesus, I am a sinner. But I believe that you died upon the cross for me. That you shed your precious blood, for the forgiveness of my sin. And I believe that on the third day you rose into heaven to prepare a place for me. I accept you now as my Savior, my Lord, my God, my friend. Come into my heart, Lord Jesus, and set me free from my sin. Heal me Lord--deliver me from all my problems. I love you Lord Jesus!"

And after you accept Christ, tell others! God now lives inside of you, and He wants to do His ministry--through you--toward others. Serve God--witness the gospel to everyone you meet --every way you know how!

----cut here----

You are crying inside, but there are no tears, but there is sorrow. A sorrow so deep and so pitiful. You have been reduced to the lowest form, the plan of the enemy

You are only a shell, now holding a lost soul, what could have been filled with God, was made for God and all the glories of heaven, but now in an unredeemable state. Worse than losing your best friend, worse sorrow than losing anything, you have lost the reason you were created.

There is nothing like this sorrow, this loneliness, this darkness, even the deepest pit on earth does not compare to it, for it is spiritual, and it is final, it is forever and forever.

One day I heard the gospel put this way....

When Adam sinned and got separated from God because of his new sinful nature, the God of Love, would not stand for it. He missed his fellowship with man and came up with a plan to reinstate man to Himself forever. All man would have to do is to believe in what Jesus did for us on the cross. He made it so easy for us, not to go to this place called hell;

I really like it put that way. Now after everything we know about hell, do you really want to go there, do you really want to lose your precious soul? It must be very valuable because the devil and God are fighting for it.

Now say this winning prayer, and don't lose your soul, give it to Jesus, He will keep it safe for you.

Lord Jesus, I am a sinner. But I believe that you died upon the cross for me. That you shed your precious blood, for the forgiveness of my sin. And I believe that on the third day you rose into heaven to prepare a place for me. I accept you now as my Savior, my Lord, my God, my friend. Come into my heart, Lord Jesus, and set me free from my sin. Heal me Lord--deliver me from all my problems. I love you Lord Jesus!"

And after you accept Christ, tell others! God now lives inside of you, and He wants to do His ministry--through you--toward others. Serve God--witness the gospel to everyone you meet --every way you know how!