
BOOK OVERVIEW

Zechariah

Author: the prophet Zechariah (his name means “Jehovah remembers”)

Date: 520-518 B.C.

Recipients: The Jews in Jerusalem who had returned from Babylon.

Summary: Haggai prompts those in Jerusalem to finish rebuilding the temple.

Key verses: Zechariah 9:9-10

Key words: The Word of the Lord (my words) (14), The Lord of hosts (52)

Notes:

Zechariah wrote 18 years after the Jews had returned to Jerusalem from Babylon.

Zechariah’s grandfather, Iddo, was a priest who returned to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel.

Darius was the king in Babylon at the time Zechariah prophesied. (This is not the Darius of Daniel’s day. He was a Mede. The Darius of Zechariah’s day was a Persian.)

Chapters 1-6 include ten visions that Zechariah received from God.

Chapters 9-11 are prophetic of Christ’s first coming and His rejection by His people.

Chapters 12-14 are prophetic of Christ’s second coming when He will be accepted by the Jews and set up His kingdom.

According to the Talmud, he was a member of the Great Synagogue, the antecedent of the Sanhedrin.

BOOK OVERVIEW

Zechariah

Author: the prophet Zechariah (his name means “Jehovah remembers”)

Date: 520-518 B.C.

Recipients: The Jews in Jerusalem who had returned from Babylon.

Summary: Haggai prompts those in Jerusalem to finish rebuilding the temple.

Key verses: Zechariah 9:9-10

Key words: The Word of the Lord (my words) (14), The Lord of hosts (52)

Notes:

Zechariah wrote 18 years after the Jews had returned to Jerusalem from Babylon.

Zechariah’s grandfather, Iddo, was a priest who returned to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel.

Darius was the king in Babylon at the time Zechariah prophesied. (This is not the Darius of Daniel’s day. He was a Mede. The Darius of Zechariah’s day was a Persian.)

Chapters 1-6 include ten visions that Zechariah received from God.

Chapters 9-11 are prophetic of Christ’s first coming and His rejection by His people.

Chapters 12-14 are prophetic of Christ’s second coming when He will be accepted by the Jews and set up His kingdom.

According to the Talmud, he was a member of the Great Synagogue, the antecedent of the Sanhedrin.

BOOK OVERVIEW

Zechariah

Author: the prophet Zechariah (his name means “Jehovah remembers”)

Date: 520-518 B.C.

Recipients: The Jews in Jerusalem who had returned from Babylon.

Summary: Haggai prompts those in Jerusalem to finish rebuilding the temple.

Key verses: Zechariah 9:9-10

Key words: The Word of the Lord (my words) (14), The Lord of hosts (52)

Notes:

Zechariah wrote 18 years after the Jews had returned to Jerusalem from Babylon.

Zechariah’s grandfather, Iddo, was a priest who returned to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel.

Darius was the king in Babylon at the time Zechariah prophesied. (This is not the Darius of Daniel’s day. He was a Mede. The Darius of Zechariah’s day was a Persian.)

Chapters 1-6 include ten visions that Zechariah received from God.

Chapters 9-11 are prophetic of Christ’s first coming and His rejection by His people.

Chapters 12-14 are prophetic of Christ’s second coming when He will be accepted by the Jews and set up His kingdom.

According to the Talmud, he was a member of the Great Synagogue, the antecedent of the Sanhedrin.