

“He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. (Isaiah 53:3-5)

Jesus knew sorrow. He suffered that sorrow for you. Pray to Him now, ask Him to relieve your burden. He shall comfort you!

Say this simple prayer:

Lord Jesus, you are almighty God. I want you to be Lord of my life. I am a sinner. I am not righteous and fall short of your great glory. But I believe that you have paid the price for my sin. Your death on the cross, the shedding of your precious blood washes away my sin. I want you to be my Savior, my Lord, my friend. Come into my heart now, Lord Jesus, set me free from sin. I surrender every problem to you now Lord Jesus. I repent of all my striving and release all my pain to the cross. Heal me Lord Jesus, make me a worthy vessel for your works. I love you Jesus and I know that it is your love that leads me to repentance.

Thank you Jesus!

And that was the day I realized that I was a sinner. “For all sin and fall short of the glory of God” [Romans 3:23] When I saw His glory I realized how far short I fell from His perfection. And I saw He was a perfect judge and had every right to judge me guilty of sin. And I realized above all I certainly didn’t deserve to be in eternal glory with Him when I died, in fact, I deserved Hell for my sin! But in that next moment, He called to me and said to me “I have paid the price, my blood is the forgiveness for your sin. The price for your redemption is already paid by my work upon the cross. Believe in me and you will be saved from Hell.” Eternal life begins the moment you ask Jesus into your heart. Give Jesus a try! He loves you and will save you!
