

He Knows

#15

This little pamphlet has a very simple message..

www.tracts.com

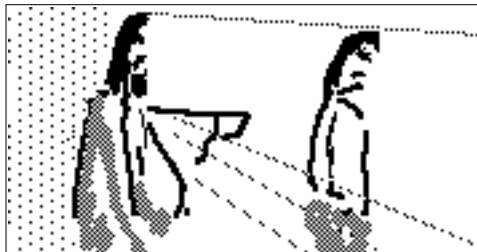

Jesus

Christ

Knows

He told me to tell you He knows what you are going through.

You!

He cares.
He wants to help you.

He wants to heal you!

Won't you let Him? You need to ask Him, to believe in Him. Just show a little faith in Him--faith is what He values, faith pleases God.

Let me tell you who Jesus is....

He is God.

He became a human being and suffered everything that you have sufferedand more.

"Take Those Shades Off, Man"

Is your life a mess ? Do you wonder how it ever got that way? Maybe this little story will help you understand.

Most of us start out on the road of life going our own way and doing our own thing. We are sure we know the right thing for ourselves and we go on this way. This can actually be ok for a time, but eventually things go wrong. Things we had not planned on, things we don't know what to do about.

Now let's see if we can unravel the mystery of how you got there in the first place. It all began when you thought "that your road" was the right road to be on. You see there was something that the devil was trying to hide from you at the moment of your decision.

What the enemy did not want you to realize is that to go your way with-out God would mean your eventual downfall and failure not only in this life, but in the next one too. There are certain unchangeable kingdom laws that God has put into motion from the beginning of time for our good and success. All that He asks of us is to accept Jesus as Lord and follow His ways that lead to life. Abundant life.

Sin-Free?

There are many philosophies today, that try to tell people that they are perfect- that they have no sin.

Some even go so far as to say that we have "god" inside us. That if we can somehow "perfect" ourselves, we can become "gods" ourselves.

Hmm-? Where have we heard this story before?

It was a long time ago, back in the garden of Eden, Satan was trying to tempt Adam and Eve to disobey God. He tempted them- he told them to obey him and "you will be like Gods." You know, the devil is a liar. This was the first lie he told to us (certainly not the last!). God had already created Adam and Eve in His image--they were already as much like God as they could possibly be!

Unfortunately, they listened to the temptation of Satan, and in so doing, brought sin and death into the world. The devil is not very creative--because to this day, he is still trying to tell people that if they listen to him, they will "be like gods"--and it is still a lie! We cannot "perfect" ourselves. We cannot make ourselves into "gods."
