He shed His blood, He laid His life down, suffered and died, so you may be set free from the bondage of sin!

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him, shall not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16)

Jesus died so you can be saved!
He rose from the dead to give you the free gift of everlasting life! So you can go to heaven!
Have you asked Him to be you Savior..? But there's even more..!

"...(Jesus) lay down His life, for His friends."

#3   Jesus Christ wants to be your friend!
Almighty God, the creator of all things, wants to know you as a friend! He wants you, just as you are, to have a lifelong friendship with Him!
Trust me, He's the greatest friend you will ever have!
Have you asked Him to save you?
He wants to be your friend!

`

Accept Jesus Christ as your Savior by saying this simple prayer:
Lord Jesus, I am a sinner. But I believe that you died upon the cross for me. That you shed your precious blood, for the forgiveness of my sin. And I believe that on the third day you rose into heaven to prepare a place for me.
I accept you now as my Savior, my Lord, my God, my Friend. Come into my heart, Lord Jesus, and set me free from my sin. And, because you are my Savior, Jesus, I "shall not die, but have everlasting life".
Thank you Jesus!

And after you accept Christ, tell others! God now lives inside of you, and He wants to do His ministry--through you--toward others. Serve God!

CUT--HERE

The Bible says that this man was a "thief." His crime must have been very bad to deserve crucifixion as punishment. Remember he was justly accused of a crime, unlike Jesus who was completely innocent. And yet, having led the life of a criminal, certainly never before knowing Jesus...he was assured, by Jesus, of going to heaven!
The thief did three things:
1. He recognized Jesus Christ as God
2. He recognized himself as a sinner (see verses 40-41)
3. He asks Jesus to save him! (verse 42)
When the thief did this, Jesus answered in no uncertain terms that his sin was forgiven and the thief would be in heaven when he died...a "solemn promise" (verse 43).
So it is very clear that salvation is obtained by:
1. Believing Jesus Christ is God (John 1:1-4)
2. Confessing to Jesus that you are a sinner (Romans 10:9-10)
3. Believing Jesus as Lord and Savior of your life! (Hebrews 5:9)
Can you do this? Right now, wherever you are, you can receive the free gift of eternal life, by saying from your heart, this simple prayer....

Lord Jesus, I am a sinner. But I believe that you died upon the cross for me. That you shed your precious blood, for the forgiveness of my sin. And I believe that on the third day you rose into heaven to prepare a place for me. I accept you now as my Savior, my Lord, my God, my friend. Come into my heart, Lord Jesus, and set me free from my sin. And, because you are my Savior, Jesus, I "shall not die, but have everlasting life".
Thank you Jesus!

And after you accept Christ, tell others! God now lives inside of you, and He wants to do His ministry--through you--toward others. Serve God!
