
BOOK OVERVIEW

II Corinthians

Author: the Apostle Paul

Date: A.D. 56-57 (shortly after the writing of I Corinthians)

Recipients: The believers at Corinth, to be shared in Achaia (southern Greece).

Summary: In addition to expanding upon the instructions he gave in his first letter to the Corinthians, Paul defends his Apostleship and the ministry to which God had called him.

Key verses: II Corinthians 4:5, 5:20–21

Key words: ministry (in various forms) (18 times)

Notes:

This is one of the most personal of all of Paul's letters.

Paul wrote this letter from somewhere in Macedonia during his third missionary journey.

Paul places special emphasis upon the Corinthian believers not being "unequally yoked with unbelievers." (II Corinthians 6:14-7:1)

In chapters eight and nine Paul encourages the Corinthians to be generous in their giving "not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver."

In II Corinthians 4:7 Paul compares the glory of the Gospel contained in our earthly bodies to a practice in his day; people hid valuable items in plain, unattractive clay jars.
