
BOOK OVERVIEW

Ephesians

Author: the Apostle Paul

Date: A.D. 62 (while Paul was a prisoner in Rome)

Recipients: the Believers in Ephesus

Summary: The daily walk and heavenly position of the members of the Body of Christ

Key verses: Ephesians 1:3, 4:1, 13

Key words: in (indicative of our position, "in Christ," "in the heavenlies") (93 times), grace (12 times)

Notes:

Ephesus was the chief city in the Roman province of Asia (now Asia Minor).

Paul spent about three years establishing the church in Ephesus. (Acts 20:31) The church there was also built through the ministries of Timothy, Aquila, Priscilla, and Apollos. Tradition indicates that the Apostle John ministered there in the latter years of his life.

Ephesus was at the center of the trade routes that attracted people from all over the known world.

By the first century Ephesus was a dying city, as its harbor was filling with silt. Commerce based on the cult of the Greek goddess Artemis, Diana of the Romans, was what sustained it.

BOOK OVERVIEW

Ephesians

Author: the Apostle Paul

Date: A.D. 62 (while Paul was a prisoner in Rome)

Recipients: the Believers in Ephesus

Summary: The daily walk and heavenly position of the members of the Body of Christ

Key verses: Ephesians 1:3, 4:1, 13

Key words: in (indicative of our position, "in Christ," "in the heavenlies") (93 times), grace (12 times)

Notes:

Ephesus was the chief city in the Roman province of Asia (now Asia Minor).

Paul spent about three years establishing the church in Ephesus. (Acts 20:31) The church there was also built through the ministries of Timothy, Aquila, Priscilla, and Apollos. Tradition indicates that the Apostle John ministered there in the latter years of his life.

Ephesus was at the center of the trade routes that attracted people from all over the known world.

By the first century Ephesus was a dying city, as its harbor was filling with silt. Commerce based on the cult of the Greek goddess Artemis, Diana of the Romans, was what sustained it.

BOOK OVERVIEW

Ephesians

Author: the Apostle Paul

Date: A.D. 62 (while Paul was a prisoner in Rome)

Recipients: the Believers in Ephesus

Summary: The daily walk and heavenly position of the members of the Body of Christ

Key verses: Ephesians 1:3, 4:1, 13

Key words: in (indicative of our position, "in Christ," "in the heavenlies") (93 times), grace (12 times)

Notes:

Ephesus was the chief city in the Roman province of Asia (now Asia Minor).

Paul spent about three years establishing the church in Ephesus. (Acts 20:31) The church there was also built through the ministries of Timothy, Aquila, Priscilla, and Apollos. Tradition indicates that the Apostle John ministered there in the latter years of his life.

Ephesus was at the center of the trade routes that attracted people from all over the known world.

By the first century Ephesus was a dying city, as its harbor was filling with silt. Commerce based on the cult of the Greek goddess Artemis, Diana of the Romans, was what sustained it.