
BOOK OVERVIEW

I Timothy

Author: the Apostle Paul

Date: A.D. 64-5 (probably sometime between Paul's two imprisonments in Rome)

Recipient: Timothy, "my own son in the faith" (I Timothy 1:2)

Summary: guidance for a young man to help him properly lead the church

Key verse: I Timothy 3:15

Key words: doctrine (8 times), godliness (8 times), teach/teacher (7 times)

Notes:

Paul met Timothy in Lystra during his first missionary journey. Under Paul's ministry Timothy became a Christian and was a devoted disciple of Paul throughout his life. Paul thought of him as his "son."

Timothy had a Greek father and a devout Jewish mother and grandmother.

This is the first of three letters that are commonly referred to as the "pastoral epistles," I & II Timothy and Titus.

Timothy was in Ephesus, when he received this letter.

This book gives the clearest instructions as to the character and qualifications of those who would be leaders in the church.

Paul admonishes Timothy to focus upon "sound doctrine" rather than the "old wives' fables" espoused by false teachers.
