

---

BOOK OVERVIEW

---

II Peter

Author: the Apostle Peter

Date: A.D. 66

Recipients: Jewish Christians in Asia Minor, as was I Peter (II Peter 3:1)

Summary: encouragement to live for Christ in spite of scoffers and false teachers

Key verse: II Peter 2:1

Key words: know/knowledge (9 times), judgment (4 times)

Notes:

This epistle was written shortly before Peter's death. Although the Bible does not record his death, tradition indicates that he was executed during the reign of Nero. There is some archaeological evidence to suggest that Peter became a martyr in Rome.

Although there is no Biblical or historical evidence that Peter was the key leader in the church at Rome, apparently he lived there for a while.

Peter concludes his letter by reminding its readers that knowledge should lead to spiritual growth. (II Peter 3:18)

Peter offers a clear defense of the Divine inspiration of Scripture in II Peter 1:19-21. In II Peter 3:16 he speaks of Paul's writing as being on the same level as the Old Testament scriptures.

---

BOOK OVERVIEW

---

II Peter

Author: the Apostle Peter

Date: A.D. 66

Recipients: Jewish Christians in Asia Minor, as was I Peter (II Peter 3:1)

Summary: encouragement to live for Christ in spite of scoffers and false teachers

Key verse: II Peter 2:1

Key words: know/knowledge (9 times), judgment (4 times)

Notes:

This epistle was written shortly before Peter's death. Although the Bible does not record his death, tradition indicates that he was executed during the reign of Nero. There is some archaeological evidence to suggest that Peter became a martyr in Rome.

Although there is no Biblical or historical evidence that Peter was the key leader in the church at Rome, apparently he lived there for a while.

Peter concludes his letter by reminding its readers that knowledge should lead to spiritual growth. (II Peter 3:18)

Peter offers a clear defense of the Divine inspiration of Scripture in II Peter 1:19-21. In II Peter 3:16 he speaks of Paul's writing as being on the same level as the Old Testament scriptures.

---

BOOK OVERVIEW

---

II Peter

Author: the Apostle Peter

Date: A.D. 66

Recipients: Jewish Christians in Asia Minor, as was I Peter (II Peter 3:1)

Summary: encouragement to live for Christ in spite of scoffers and false teachers

Key verse: II Peter 2:1

Key words: know/knowledge (9 times), judgment (4 times)

Notes:

This epistle was written shortly before Peter's death. Although the Bible does not record his death, tradition indicates that he was executed during the reign of Nero. There is some archaeological evidence to suggest that Peter became a martyr in Rome.

Although there is no Biblical or historical evidence that Peter was the key leader in the church at Rome, apparently he lived there for a while.

Peter concludes his letter by reminding its readers that knowledge should lead to spiritual growth. (II Peter 3:18)

Peter offers a clear defense of the Divine inspiration of Scripture in II Peter 1:19-21. In II Peter 3:16 he speaks of Paul's writing as being on the same level as the Old Testament scriptures.