Date: A.D. 66-68

Recipients: “them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ” (Jude 1)

Notes:

Jude is the English form of the name Judas and the Hebrew name Judah. He was not one of the twelve Apostles.

Jude makes the only mention in Scripture of the contention between the archangel Michael and the devil over the body of Moses. (vs 9)

Jude is the only Biblical writer that mentions the prophecy of Enoch. (vs 14-16)

Jude had originally intended to write about the “common salvation;” instead, he was prompted by God to write concerning the apostasy that was creeping into the church. (vs 3-4)

Even though Jude and his brother James were half brothers of Jesus in the flesh, they referred to themselves as nothing more than His servants. (vs 1)
Neither one believed in Christ until after the resurrection. (John 7:5, Acts 1:14)
