

---

BOOK OVERVIEW

---

Revelation

Author: the Apostle John

Date: A.D. 96

Recipients: “the seven churches which are in Asia” (Revelation 1:4)

Summary: letters to seven churches and revelation concerning the end times

Key verse: Revelation 1:19

Key word: I saw/beheld/looked (49 times), seven (59 times), angel (70 times)

Notes:

John outlived the other Apostles and died about 100 A.D at a very old age as a prisoner on the island of Patmos. (Revelation 1:9) Patmos had a penal colony for political prisoners.

Some scholars view the seven churches in Revelation as representative of the various stages through which the Church has developed historically.

The book contains four great visions, each preceded by “in the spirit.” (1:10; 4:2: 17:3; 21:10) Each vision presents a unique perspective on Christ.

Revelation is a difficult book to understand, but its clear message of encouragement is that God is in complete control.

In art the Apostle John is often represented by an eagle.

---

BOOK OVERVIEW

---

Revelation

Author: the Apostle John

Date: A.D. 96

Recipients: “the seven churches which are in Asia” (Revelation 1:4)

Summary: letters to seven churches and revelation concerning the end times

Key verse: Revelation 1:19

Key word: I saw/beheld/looked (49 times), seven (59 times), angel (70 times)

Notes:

John outlived the other Apostles and died about 100 A.D at a very old age as a prisoner on the island of Patmos. (Revelation 1:9) Patmos had a penal colony for political prisoners.

Some scholars view the seven churches in Revelation as representative of the various stages through which the Church has developed historically.

The book contains four great visions, each preceded by “in the spirit.” (1:10; 4:2: 17:3; 21:10) Each vision presents a unique perspective on Christ.

Revelation is a difficult book to understand, but its clear message of encouragement is that God is in complete control.

In art the Apostle John is often represented by an eagle.

---

BOOK OVERVIEW

---

Revelation

Author: the Apostle John

Date: A.D. 96

Recipients: “the seven churches which are in Asia” (Revelation 1:4)

Summary: letters to seven churches and revelation concerning the end times

Key verse: Revelation 1:19

Key word: I saw/beheld/looked (49 times), seven (59 times), angel (70 times)

Notes:

John outlived the other Apostles and died about 100 A.D at a very old age as a prisoner on the island of Patmos. (Revelation 1:9) Patmos had a penal colony for political prisoners.

Some scholars view the seven churches in Revelation as representative of the various stages through which the Church has developed historically.

The book contains four great visions, each preceded by “in the spirit.” (1:10; 4:2: 17:3; 21:10) Each vision presents a unique perspective on Christ.

Revelation is a difficult book to understand, but its clear message of encouragement is that God is in complete control.

In art the Apostle John is often represented by an eagle.