

Adrift At Sea

*Adrift at sea, In the storm of Sin
My ship had no power, I was sinking Within
The waves of sin, Crashing over my Life
I will surely Drown, But I see a Light*

*I swam toward the light, But I was tossed About
The anchor of sin, Was pulling me Down
Determined to break, This bondage I was In
But I just kept sinking, Deeper in Sin*

*I looked to the light, Before I went Down
I cannot Save myself, I'm going to Drown
Before I went under, And with one last Cry
Lord Save Me! As I disappeared from Sight*

*Submerged and sinking, I felt such Despair
My Life was ending, I was going Nowhere
Then all of a sudden, I felt such Calm
For the light had sent me, His Old Rugged Cross*

*I cling to His Cross, So stained in Red
His hands of Love, Pulled me up Again
The anchor of sin, Which had me Bound
Now gone from my life, I would not Drown*

*I looked to Jesus, The light I have Found
And now my feet, Stand on solid Ground
So if you are sinking, In a sea of sin Today
Just turn to that light, And you can be Saved*

*Jesus walked on water, So we would Believe
He died on the Cross, To set us all Free
He rose from the Dead, To live Forevermore
He beacons your Heart, From Heavens Golden shore*

*Once you have found the Light
And in Him, You truly Believe
For this I know, And this you will See
With Jesus you can sail, Life's stormy Seas*

*Author: George L. Fields
Ephesians 2:8-9
1/25/2006*

