

NEW BABY

At last your baby has arrived!
Congratulations! I'll bet sometimes you thought that day would never come! Now all the waiting is over and you get to take care of your precious new baby.

I'm sure it will take some time to adjust to having your baby at home, and you will have many nights up feeding and caring for him.

If you ask for Jesus help and guidance He will be right there giving you peace and joy, too; and He will send others to help you if you need them. Just keep holding on to Jesus throughout the days and nights and you will make it through.

You will have a lot of joy and fun to look forward to as you raise your child. Always remember that Jesus wants you to keep seeking Him from day to day. Just reach out for His strength and comfort. As your child grows He wants you to teach him all about His love and how He wants him to act and think as written in His Holy Bible.
