

BE AN OVERCOMER

Instead of negative words and thoughts we need to be very careful what we say. Our talk and self-talk needs to line up with the Word of God or it limits what we can have from Jesus. We need to say what God says not what we think by our feelings.

We need to build ourselves up in the Word of God. Not tear ourselves down saying defeating things.

We will have what we say. If we say negative things that is what we will have. The words you say to yourself are the most important things you say. Again I say, you need to say what God says!

We don't go by our feelings or what other people have said about us. Some people are experts at depressing themselves, you get whatever you say.

Do warfare with your mouth. When you confess the Word of God and continue doing it you close the door to Satan. Use words that God can USE to help you. Don't use fleshly speech and don't go by fleshly feelings. Be accountable for your words.

Stay busy blessing everything you can bless. When you get up in the morning say, God, I bless this day in Jesus Name, Say a blessing over your children, and everything and everyone you can think of. Say, thank you Jesus! The blessings of God are mine as a blood bought child of God. There is healing power in the words of your mouth! Call those things that be not as though they were. Romans 4:17

Say positive, overcoming things. If we aren't in some kind of combat in the spirit we aren't doing anything.

It's a normal state when you are a Christian to be in spiritual warfare. Have a good attitude toward the challenges that come your way, Say, I am going to overcome all obstacles and do the will of God. Listen to what God says about you. The devil keeps telling us what we are not. Jesus keeps trying to tell us that we are His beloved children who are well pleasing to Him. God never reminds us how far we have fallen but how far we have risen. He reminds us, if we will listen, how far we have come, and how well we are doing, how precious we are in His sight and how much He loves us!

He tells us we are accepted in the beloved because of what He has done!

God wants us to know that His hand is upon us, that His Holy Spirit is right there in us and within us to help us with everything we do. He wants us to know that Jesus is our Friend, and that as we walk with Him day by day, good things are going to take place in our lives. Proverbs 18:24

If you listen to Jesus rather than the devil, It will cheer you up and make you feel good about yourself. He will give us peace about the past, joy for the present and hope for the future. The joy of the Lord is our peace and our stronghold!

We have power to be aggressive against the devil. If we aren't aggressive toward him...he will become aggressive towards us. By following the Holy Spirit and allowing the fruit of the Spirit to be evident in our lives, we are initiators and innovators. We can purposely bring forth the creative ability of God that is on the inside of us.

Keep the devil on the run! The devil lies to us.

If we aren't aggressive against him and don't stop listening to his lies, he will run our lives! He goes about like a roaring lion but we have the Lion of Judah! 1 Peter 5:8 We are the ones who should be roaring!

We have the authority through Jesus to rebuke him. He is a defeated foe! Remind him of his end! As long as you are passive and listen to the devil's negativity, He will torment you.

God has given you authority over your mouth and only you can decide what is going to come out of it and it's your responsibility to do the Will of God and confess the right things and decide whether we are going to grow in Him or stay the way we are; which is stuck or stagnant in our walk.

Say everything is blessed in your life and stop disagreeing with God's plan for your life. You need to believe that and adopt it as part of your every waking moment. Ask Jesus to put a guard on your mouth and help you be careful what you say.

Get your mouth in the service of God. Have a positive opinion about everything and put the best construction on everything, and everyone in your life. Find things to be thankful for and Say So. Don't complain that it's too hard. God made provision for you to handle everything.

Murmuring and complaining doesn't glorify God. Keep your mouth full of Gratitude. "In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." 1 Thessalonians 5:18

"Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ." Ephesians 5:20

Say, God I am thankful that you are working things out for and within me everyday. I may not see it and or feel it but I know that you are working.

“And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose.” Romans 8:28

Use your mouth for what it is meant to be used for. To bless and thank God for all things no matter what you feel like, and it will be a blessing to your life and the lives of others and bring good things your way.

Say, All the blessings of God are mine through Christ Jesus. I will not be defeated! I am a child of God and I am being changed into His image from glory to glory.

Say, Satan may knock me down but he isn't going to knock me OUT! No person has truly failed until he has stopped trying. Falling is different than failing. God uses your weaknesses to develop your character and make you a better person.

We have a blood bought right to all the promises in God's Word. Say, I receive help and healing by the blood of Jesus Christ. Jesus said “according to your faith let it be done unto you.”

Say, I will have victory in all things through Jesus: healing, no more lack of anything, freedom from depression and freedom from fear, I have peace, joy and everything that God says I have.

“But thanks be unto God which (Always) giveth the Victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.” 1 Corinthians 15:47

Don't let anyone steal God's promises from you, including your own negative thoughts and words.

Expect God to fulfill His Word in your life and let those overcoming words come out of your mouth. Put a guard on your mouth and be very aware of what you say at all times, like I said before. Let your words always be positive about all things and in all circumstances and you will find that your words will manifest wonderful things in your life, the longer and the more that you do it.

If we believe that God is greater than our failures, then they have no power over us. Our weaknesses are an opportunity for Him to show His strength. Don't be depressed by your weaknesses and failures. Rejoice in knowing that because of Jesus you don't have to stay that way. Remember you are no surprise to God. He knew what He was getting when He chose you. He STILL chose you!

Say, I think I'll be happy God is my Daddy. With God on my side things are bound to work out all right in the end. So let's rejoice now and not waste time being troubled!

Jesus said, “Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you, Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.” John 14:27

Don't compare. If you don't have something, you must not need it, or it isn't the time for you to have it. If it's a much needed request than we need to come boldly before His throne and be consistent and persistent about receiving these answers to our prayers.

He has a PLAN for you! We often don't understand what He is doing or why He is doing it but we Must learn to trust Him.

“Jesus will keep you in perfect peace if your mind is stayed on Him and you trust in Him.” Isaiah 26:3

“Be anxious for nothing but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made Known unto God.”

Philippians 4:6

Remember, weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. It may seem like a long night and that morning will never come but it will come and you will be so joyful when it comes...knowing that God has done a work in you, again!

And you have grown to another level in Him.

Proverbs 30:5

Joy is a result of being thankful for every little thing we have and counting ourselves blessed just to be alive and to know that Jesus is our Lord. It takes commitment and diligence and much practice to do these things but it will greatly pay off if you do!

If you're busy doing the right things with your mouth, you won't have time for the wrong things. Concentrate on doing the right things and don't dwell on all the things you think you are doing wrong. Keep your words lined up with the Word of God and what it says about you. Keep your mind focused on God's Word and not on all the negative, defeating thoughts trying to convince you of something else besides what God's Word says.
