

Are you believing a lie?

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us
(1 JOHN 1:8)

Ezekiel was a watchman for the kingdom of Israel and it was his duty to warn the people of the wrath that was to come.

If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people. Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. (Ezekiel 33:3, 4)

Dear reader I ask you if you believe your own works of righteousness can save you from hell, you are believing a lie!

If you believe you are a pretty good person and go to church every sunday, you are believing a lie!

If you believe because you were born into a nice respectable family God would never let you go to hell, the Bible tells us you have been deceived and you are sadly believing a lie!

When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, (sin) all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall surely die. (Ezekiel 33:13)

Jesus says; they that be whole need not a physician but they that are sick. but go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy and not sacrifice; for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Matthew 9:12, 13)

----cut here----

Are you believing a lie?

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us
(1 JOHN 1:8)

Ezekiel was a watchman for the kingdom of Israel and it was his duty to warn the people of the wrath that was to come.

If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people. Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. (Ezekiel 33:3, 4)

Dear reader I ask you if you believe your own works of righteousness can save you from hell, you are believing a lie!

If you believe you are a pretty good person and go to church every sunday, you are believing a lie!

If you believe because you were born into a nice respectable family God would never let you go to hell, the Bible tells us you have been deceived and you are sadly believing a lie!

When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, (sin) all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall surely die. (Ezekiel 33:13)

Jesus says; they that be whole need not a physician but they that are sick. but go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy and not sacrifice; for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Matthew 9:12, 13)

Dear friend, if you are tired of trying again and again in your own strength, and you are seeking for release from past failures, I have wonderful news for you, I can very well identify with you. I've been there too, until I saw myself as much of a sinner as the murderer, a robber, and a thief I too believed a lie and thought my works of righteousness could save me.

If we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (1John 1;10)

*Alas and did my savior bleed
and did my sovereign die would He devote that sacred head for sinner such as I!*

*At the cross at the cross,
where I first saw the light
and the burden of my heart rolled
away,
it was there by faith I received my sight,
and now I am happy all the day!*

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost (Titus 3;5)

For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God (Ephesians 2;8)

Friend , you still have this moment to make your decision, are you still relying on your own strength and hope that it will somehow be enough, or do you see that Jesus Christ has done it all all you need is to believe?

I plead with you and I can testify you will never be sorry!

Come before Him and just surrender your all to Him.

Jesus says; the time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye, and believe the gospel. {Mark 1;15}

Dear friend, if you are tired of trying again and again in your own strength, and you are seeking for release from past failures, I have wonderful news for you, I can very well identify with you. I've been there too, until I saw myself as much of a sinner as the murderer, a robber, and a thief I too believed a lie and thought my works of righteousness could save me.

If we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (1John 1;10)

*Alas and did my savior bleed
and did my sovereign die would He devote that sacred head for sinner such
as I!*

*At the cross at the cross,
where I first saw the light
and the burden of my heart rolled
away,
it was there by faith I received my
sight,
and now I am happy all the day!*

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost (Titus 3;5)

For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God (Ephesians 2;8)

Friend , you still have this moment to make your decision, are you still relying on your own strength and hope that it will somehow be enough, or do you see that Jesus Christ has done it all all you need is to believe?

I plead with you and I can testify you will never be sorry!

Come before Him and just surrender your all to Him.

Jesus says; the time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye, and believe the gospel. {Mark 1;15}