P R E F A C E A N D P R O F E S S

In this Preface, we profess our total belief in Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and our preference for the holy words of Jesus Christ as told by John. Many of us have, through trial and error, learned with difficulty to dedicate our entire lives, our thoughts, words, and deeds to Him, to be obedient to Him, to invite Him to dwell within us through the Holy Spirit. We bow down to Him and ask Him to take absolute control of our lives. This requires letting go of our will and letting Christ guide us with His will. In these Word Pray Poems, we pray that the words and very letters of John's Prologue speak to us and grace us with spiritual ears to hear the beautiful spiritual and mystical meanings of John's words that should be written in gold on our foreheads. Let us let the words of John speak their truth to us and enlighten us.

---

The book title, Call the Words A Sage, is inspired by Shakespeare's famous line, "All the world's a stage", from his pastoral comedy As You Like It. When I first wrote those five words, I saw the "Sage" as the human poet, but now, looking at the serene scene on the cover, it is clearer that "A Sage" is the Christ, a Holy beam of light sent by the Father and experienced by us as the loving wisdom of the Holy Spirit. Compare Swedenborg's portrayal of Christ the Son as a spiritual sun. May Christ, streaming down as the Sage, grace His people with the ability to "call the words" from the Prologue of John, revealing "all things and all truth" of the fourth gospel. Eternal thanks to the Son of God for gracing this non-deserving human with this overflowing gift and inviting us to join Him, The Way, The Truth, and The Life (John 14:6).

In the Beginning...

Before we begin, O Lord, we pray that You harness us to see Thee clearly, love Thee dearly, and seek Thee nearly!

In the Beginning ... way before creation an inner nearness with Father and Son, resplendent and interdependent, the only Son, the Word most Holy.

Way back, no time, no thing, a vast empty before angels sing, the vast so deep souls unborn asleep Then wisdom and love merge, time begins,
grace and truth emerge.

A genius clock, subtle and simple,
unlocks,
and wheels within wheels begin to turn and set creation into motion.

A sacred beauty full of luminous light and living water, fountains spring up limitless and the first secret words, rivers of words of fathomless fluency, are uttered in an endless giving, beginning a scripture gift for the future living.

All this, mirrored eons later, at the Jordan
as the Dove of Love from the Father Above embraces the Son in Whom the Father is well pleased.

was the Word ... there from very start, an eternal loving heart, sustaining all creation with Holy Spirit breath, proving His love with his last breath and death.

His word, a sacred sound, encircles all of creation, enlivening dust with His wondrous, woven love essence.

The Word is wholly and holy original at the origin, virginal, a founding stone,
with love of truth and truth of His love that calls to all and invites them to forever dine on his gospel words, gossamer fine.

---

And the Word ...

is astounding,
truth resounding,
wisdom abounding,
a never-ending,
ever-tending mending that heals and graces us with zeal.

Our faith in Christ safeguards our place in Heaven.

All this before existence prime, before any word, thought, or rhyme.

Hear the tears of his heartbeat weep

For all souls with spirit asleep

---

Our souls astonished and nourished with His wonderful words flourished and replenished when He admonished us to steer clear of sin.

He is our Lord, Word, and Ward.

He is our Guard.

Being with Him,

reigning so regal and royal, affords us an accord loyal.

Our devoted shepherd Christ embraces & envelops us in His arms, protects us from harms, and develops and promotes our souls to love others as He has loved us.

---

was with God...

His living water

washes away sin, cleanses our hearts, and as His strength enters, sin departs.

His innocent child way is the born-again way, with a new spirit within.

Our elder brother without sin, born pure and chaste of Mary virgin, is with God,

and always a witness of Holy Trinity blessedness.

His interior, innermost wisdom unveils solutions for our travails.

He is the way, the life, and the truth, and from His mouth purest come words truest.
His words are both truthful
and ruthless, truthful in being without sin or deceit, ruthful in being full of sorrow for his lost sheep, and in full sorrow, lifting Himself up onto the cross, sacrificing His life to save us, sinners all.
He saves and harvests our souls to live forever resting with Him on the highest mountain in Heaven.

He is our highest and finest

King of Kings.

He was with God,

a begotten

never to be forgotten, as he chose with His Father for the Son to be destined for the Cross where He,

the lonely only

One

was:

“brazenly brokenly maligned wantonly scorned scourged and confined.”

And yet,

He rose from that death

---

Adorned with blood from the Crown of Thorns.

In the Book of Heaven,

His name is forever emblazoned, resting companioned at the right hand of the Father.

He,

the most innocent and humble, living as fully human,

suffering everything, now ascended and enthroned, always one with the Father.

How blessed are we that the gift of His death turns into the gift of eternal life for those who fully believe in Him and His sacrifice!

Authority ...

Your Father gave you all authority to proclaim the purity the charity

and the clarity of the Kingdom of Heaven

From out of the mouth of your Father came the Word of God to gather together one sheep after another, and call each one brother.

We honor You Word mouth author

Our soul touchstone, our life anchor.

Now...

You are authority now declared to winnow us now to knowing truth.

You promised, and You sent God's truth.

Your Holy Spirit guides us all to Your truth.

Declared...

You have been declared

by Your Father,

God Almighty,

to be fully divine,

the Son of God;

and to be fully human,

the Son of Man;

You came to earth

to save our souls

with crystal words of clarity, leading us foremost to elders' charity.

Expectancy ...

Christ clearly exceeded and transcended the Father's heavenly expectations for Him.

When He ascended,
our sins were amended, but that depended on our being intended to follow Him in seeking the perfection he recommended.

The Advent of Christ.

He now lives in us.

His opening the Heavens is a pure plus.

Given the decency of His regency and the clemency of His potency.

---

Welcomes ...

Never before
were the poor so welcomed.

Never before
were the widowed so beloved.

Never before
were the orphaned so gladdened.

Christ welcomes all believers to His kingdom

He welcomes the dejected,
the ejected,
and the rejected.

He welcomes all latecomers and fosters their spirit being reborn to all corners of the Earth.

Outcasts ...

He is the Fisher King, casting out his first net for all sinners.

It is a call for all castaways,

a casting call for all beginners, a casting call for

Andrew and John to come and see.

Releases ...

Jesus gives us a new lease on life, urging us to abandon worldly pursuits of lust, greed, and power and pursue Lordly pursuits of love, generosity, and meekness.

---

We plead with Him to please release

us

from our inner sin, to banish the voices of doom and din.

Demons ...

How ironic is it ...

that demons know and believe that ...

that Jesus is the Christ... that Jesus is the Son of God!

But humans, even up to Thomas, doubt that He is the Christ ...

doubt that He is the Son of God doubt that He is risen!

Demons heed His man-God command

Christ supreme to evil demand.

Was God Wondrous ...

A Wonder Accord Sealed!

a wonder bond so generous.

a light bond so lustrous, a spiritual wealth so prosperous, a heart connection so rapturous, a humility so decorous, an abundance so proliferous, a glory so splendiferous!

And all this just for us!

An accord ...

A concord harmony

A concord order

Out of this order

One word

An accordant responsive chord

Sealed ...

Equals side by side glorified

Heart to heart, they ever abide

---

Goodness ...

God is good.

His grace comes with a good and kind caress and rescues souls from evil duress.

Opening ...

His goodness is opening the doors of our hearts

for the Holy Spirit

Who imparts an awakening quickening spirit by His mercy, not our merit.

Destiny ...

Then God's ever present omniscient scrutiny test brings out in us a perfect best

---

In the Bible and in Valtorta's Poem of the Man-God, John always places himself as the "last and least" of the Apostles. His meekness, humbleness, and love for Christ is, for me, the greatest virtue of John and of the greatest saints and mystics. All of them replace their ego self with the Christ self by inviting Christ to dwell within them and reshape them anew. They all consider themselves as nothing and Christ as everything. As Matthew 20:16 says:

"So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen"

This is the end of the commentary on the first three poems of Call the Words a Sage. A complete commentary on all of the eight poems will be part of a forthcoming "Book 2."

John was intimately in touch with his own soul.

That is why the Evangelist of Love can say, (Maria Valtorta, Poem of the Man-God” Volume 2 Paragraph 227, Pages 481-482):

“I would like a pair of wings to fly up to the gates of Heaven and learn the language of Light, to repeat it to men.”

The subtitle of Call the Words a Sage is:

“A Language of Light Streaming from The Prologue of John 1-5.”

---

A Language must have words, and the words to be visible to
us,
must embody light.

The book cover shows a beam of light streaming down from above and ending at the surface of the water.

Just below where the light meets the water is one word . . . SAGE!

The symbolism of the book cover is inescapable.

The beam of light is streaming down from Heaven and meets the water, the Water of Life, the Living Water, which is embodied in one word . . . SAGE!

---

In one word . . . SAGE!

The SAGE is Christ,

the Son of God,

sent down from Heaven,

on a beam of heavenly light,

to save our souls

with His Light and

His Living Water.

His Light is embodied in in the Bread of Life, and His Living Water is embodied in the Wine of Life,

which He bequeathed to us at the Last Supper.

Here, we have a Beginning and an

End.

At His birth...

The Beginning,

He is beaming and streaming down as the Infant Christ, full of Living Light and Living Water, the two essentials...Light and Water bound together in His dawning of a living and loving life.

The book cover is the dawning of a new day and a new way.

We have depicted here the Birth of the Word, the Birth of the Sage of Sages, the Birth of the humblest Sage on the humblest stage, a manger.

The Light streaming down, meets with the water and creates a fully human Sage, a Sage who will lead us with His words of wisdom, to a new Beginning.

---

It is a new life undreamed of before.

This Sage will CALL THE WORDS,

Call the Words of love and wisdom, of grace and truth,

down from Heaven,

given to Him in Heaven

by His Father, to Whom He owes everything and without Whom

He the Christ would be nothing.

This is the Beginning.

Then we have the End.

---

The End begins with the Last Supper.

We have two Trinities:

Light-Bread-Body

Water-Wine-Blood

Light and Bread, Water and Wine; these create and maintain our life manifesting in body and blood.

What is essential is given to us at the beginning and at the end by Christ!

In the beginning was the word, and all things were made by Him.

In the beginning... we were made by Christ with living light and water.

In the middle ... we are kept by Christ with living bread and wine.

In the End ... we are saved by Christ with His Body and Blood in Remembrance of Him!

EPILOGUE

---

The first mention of the Holy Spirit by John is John 1:32.

“And John gave testimony, saying,

‘I saw the Spirit coming down as a dove from Heaven and He remained on Him.”

The Dove of Love

descends from Heaven above.

For the first time on this Earth,

The Holy Spirit comes to stay and abide.

Side by side, the Three reside in each other and within us.

We are witnesses on Earth of this birth ...

Birth of the Trinity,

Birth of the Tri-Unity,

Birth of the Three Unity!

STREAMING THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

PROLOGUE 1-5

In a culture where we are flooded with commentaries based on grammatical, historical, and theological exegesis, there is a hunger for a model of devotional reflection through an artistic style that can reveal the deeper spirit of the text and provide a model for how others can meditate on God's Word. Brian Bouton, MD, gives us a devotional, poetic prayer in the form of a sacred acrostic poem keying off of the English text of the Prologue to John's Gospel. This kind of word-pray with letters is not unlike that of many ancient near-eastern poets, but rarely seen today. Psalm 119 is an example where each line of a stanza starts with the same Hebrew letter of the heading to that stanza. His personal reflections are rich and inspirational; his style is creative and inspires us to meditate on God's Word in the same way. Thank you, Brian. God bless your offering of ministry.

—Retired Pastor Jim Abrahamson, Chapel Hill Bible Church

Call the Words a Sage is a remarkable hymn of praise to God written by a true believer, a ponderer, a poet, a thinker, a seeker, and a fellow Christian, Brian Bouton, MD, who has been our dear friend for many years. Using the words of the Gospel of John, Brian describes the endless interplay of God's love for us and what that love could provoke in our minds, our hearts, and our souls, enabling Christians to have a more fertile and creative capacity for encountering the Word.

—Curt and Donna Hardy, Parishioners of St. Thomas More Catholic Church

Brian Bouton, MD, is a graduate of Phillips Exeter Academy 1957, Harvard College 1961, and University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry 1965. He trained in psychiatry at Massachusetts General Hospital and McLean Hospital in the Boston area. He is currently in private practice in Chapel Hill, NC. He describes his practice as a therapy of the soul's relationship with Christ. Following the Way and Word of the Cross bequeathed to us by our Lord Jesus Christ, Brian has dedicated this past decade to exploring the Word of God and how it manifests clearly and beautifully in the Prologue to the Gospel of John. It is his fervent hope that Call the Words A Sage expands and deepens the spiritual and mystical message of John's Prologue and that his fellow Christians will use the Word Pray Poem Way illustrated in this book to write their own Word Pray poems, sharing them with Brian, in hopes of publishing an anthology of Word Pray Way Poems dedicated to our Lord Jesus Christ.
