

The Chastisement of the Lord

These are some wonderful scriptures on the chastening of the Lord. The Lord loves His children enough to correct them to keep them going the right direction so that they can have joyful, successful lives, which helps them in the most important ways of all; to be able to have a very close personal relationship with Him.

Beginning in Hebrews 12:
5 My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of Him: for whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth. 7 If you endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the Father chasteneth not? 8 But if you be without chastisement, whereof, all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we no much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? 10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of His Holiness.”

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. Then in Proverbs 3:11 we read: My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of His correction: 12 For whom the Lord loveth He correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth!

And in Job 5:17: Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth; therefore despise not thou the chastising of the Almighty. 18 For He maketh sore, and bindeth up: He woundeth, and His hands make whole.
