It's a sad time, it's a bereaved time, having suffered the loss of someone near and dear to you that you love.

As a Christian the first thought would come to mind is, were they saved?

Did they accept JESUS as their PERSONAL SAVIOR, when they were here on this earth? I hope they made the right decision before they left this life.

If not, then they are lost and separated from GOD, for the thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. (John 10:10)

The Bible says, Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon him while He is near. (Is. 55:6)

For the wages of sin is death, (Rom 6:23). This death is more than just physical death, it's an eternal burning.

The Bible says, but the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers and idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burn with fire and brimstone which is the second death, (Rev. 21:8).

Even if that person died a terrible death or just an illness, it does not matter, if Jesus was not in their life, THEY ARE LOST!
"THAT'S A FUNERAL"

The one that is in the casket cannot read this, but YOU CAN! It's not too late for YOU to make a DECISION of whom you are going to serve.

HOMEGOING

Someday we will all leave this earth at some point in time, but a person who has accepted Jesus as their LORD and Savior has made a decision to serve all eternity with HIM. If we endure, we shall also reign with HIM. If we deny and disown and reject HIM, He will also deny and disown and reject us. (Amp. II Tim 2:12) Now they are no longer here on earth, For they are sleeping in Christ. For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life, through Christ Jesus our Lord. (Rom 6:23).

God wants us to be a blessing to the body of Christ and do the work of the ministry. For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. (Phil. 1:21 Amp).

He promised me everlasting life with Him, therefore, I'M GOING HOME" to be with the Lord. That's something to rejoice about meaning, that I will see them again, IF I AM IN CHRIST TOO.

As you are reading this, I hope you have made the right decision. The bible says, For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

(Rom. 10:13).

God said, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away" (Matt. 24:35). The life style you are living is only for a season; don't get caught out there in the things of this world, because the devil will snuff you out.

Choose ye this day whom ye will serve (Joshua 24:15).

You can do so by reading the rest of this tract...

I hope your decision is a HOMEGOING. You have an opportunity to allow Jesus in your life RIGHT NOW!

Just by praying this prayer out loud...

Dear Jesus,

I realize that I need Jesus Christ in my life, I confess that I am a sinner, but I want to turn from serving the devil.. So, I turn to Jesus and decide to walk in the light. God your word says that whosoever will call on the name of Jesus will be saved. I call on Jesus name right now. I say out loud with my mouth that Jesus is my Lord, and I believe in my heart that God raised Him from the dead. Cleanse me from all my sins. I invite you to come into my heart right now, and I receive the free gift of eternal life, in Jesus name. Amen.
