

The Pressures
Of
Life

We have all somehow been under pressure many times in our lives. Pressure from our jobs, schools, homes, hospitals, prison, family, friends, children, and many more.

But the fact is how we deal with pressure, how to react when we are under pressure. Like Peer pressure results when a weak person becomes easily influence by others. They don't want to be singled out as different; they fear being unpopular, or weird, so they go along with the crowd in their pursuit of ideas. They do it whether it is right or wrong rather than be left out!

Eventually you will lose your own self-identity. You become a follower and not a leader. Proverbs 13:20 Says, He that walketh with wise men (people) shall be wise, but a companion of fools shall be destroyed. Meaning following their example.

Peer pressure may seem the only way to go but it's the wrong way. Proverbs 14:12 Says, there is a way which seemeth right unto a man (person) but the end thereof are the ways of death.

John 1:12 but as many as received Him to them gave he power to become the sons of God. James 1:14-15 But everyman (person) is tempted, when he drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. When your so-called friends drop you, God will give you new and better ones. You can turn to God anytime of the day or night. He knows what you need to make you happy and He wants what's best for you. Make a decision to free yourself from peer pressure.
