

DO YOU NEED A MIRACLE?

You need to live in, dwell, breath in the healing verses of the Holy Bible to help with healing. You can pick out which ones speak the most to you each day, or memorize as you read them again and again, as you are able.

You don't have to say or think them in any particular order. You can take a verse anywhere in the Bible and say that or parts of it, or more than one verse, all intermingled together. I have found that even in a lot of pain I can bring myself to be murmuring some of the words, or schooling my mind to be thinking them instead of letting my thoughts and feelings take prominence.

Sometimes you give up for awhile because you are so miserable but the Holy Spirit will draw you back to doing it again if you are willing; muttering them, pondering on them, saying them out loud and under your breath, and soon they will become a part of you and you will become like the essence of you. It's an amazing thing how when you use God's Word as your help, the Holy Spirit comes and encourages you to go on, and the words give you Hope and Strength and Faith to Believe that everything is going to be all right!

“He giveth power to the Faint; and to them that have no might He increaseth strength.”
