

Faith as A Grain of Mustard Seed

Beginning in the Gospel of Matthew 17:14:

And when they were come to the multitude, there came to Him a certain man, kneeling down to Jesus and saying, 15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is a lunatic, and sore vexed: for often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. 16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. 17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you?

How long shall I suffer you? Bring him hither to me. 18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour. 19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? 20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your Unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto 21 However, this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting. Another place in scripture that is agreement with these scriptures is in the 11th chapter of Mark, beginning at the 13th verse: And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, Jesus came and to see if He might find anything thereon: and when He came to it, He found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, "No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever! And His disciples heard it. 19 And when evening was come Jesus went out of the city. 20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto Jesus, Master, behold, the fig tree is which Thou cursest is withered away. 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. 23 For truly, I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith." 24 Therefore I say unto you: What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them!" "And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have anything against anyone: that your Father also which is in Heaven may forgive you your trespasses.
