

Freedom

*Bound in Chains and brought before the King
Surely this Day would be the end of Me
I heard the Charges as the Court reporter Read
I knew they were True so I bowed my Head*

*The list was long a Lifetime you See
My Heart sank so I dropped to my Knees
I answered each Charge with Tears in my Eyes
For Guilty would be my only Reply*

*The Prosecutor Laughed and Shouted at Me
He's not worthy give him to Me
A life time of Sin and now he must Pay
Your Laws he has broken every Single Day*

*Throw him into the Pit that is my Plea
So he can Burn for all Eternity
He must be Tormented to pay for his Sins
Your Word doesn't lie now his Life must End*

*The King was Silent as they lead me Away
I could not Speak there was nothing to Say
My Attorney arose and addressed the King
He can't go with him he belongs to Me*

*I raised my Head to look Around
It was Jesus now addressing the Crowd
If you check the books I know you'll See
For his Forgiveness they Crucified me*

*My Blood was shed so he could go Free
I remember the Day that he accepted Me
The King checked the books and said now I See
Release him to Jesus he must go Free*

*From Torment and Hell you can be Saved Today
Because Jesus Christ is the Only Way
His Blood was shed for all Mankind
Accept Him today and enjoy Eternal Life*

Knowing Jesus is Knowing Freedom

*Author: George L Fields
Ephesians 2:8-9 10/31/2005*