

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Happy Birthday, Little One! The little boy in the picture has his arms stretched out as if to say, look at God's wonderful Creation, isn't it beautiful! And a finger is pointed to Heaven as if to say, Jesus is the Only Way to Heaven! So true!

I hope you have a joyful birthday, Honey. One that you will remember always and that it will hold a very special place in your heart, just like Jesus has a special place in your heart.

Be sure to thank everyone for being there and Jesus too for help in providing your cake and a few presents that you get to celebrate.
