

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

You know that Minnie Mouse isn't real but she is cute isn't she! It is fun to see her face on something, or have a stuffed toy of her.

But you know that Jesus is Real and He is looking down so lovingly upon you today, and He would love for you to spend some time with Him on your very Special day. He loves you more than you can imagine, Honey!

He wants you to have the Bestest Birthday ever and He wants to give you Joy Every Day...not just on your birthday!

So, would you find a quiet place today and spend some quality time with the Lord. Maybe at bedtime before you go to sleep you could talk to Him.

Just tell Him how very much you love and appreciate Him and that you would like to learn all about Him and His Ways? He leans down and listens carefully when you call on Him. He takes it all seriously and He never forgets what you ask of Him! Just be patient and peacefully wait for His answers to your prayers.

Happy Birthday Honey!
