

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Mickey Mouse looks like he is kicking up his heels and having fun! Just like I hope you are doing on your very Special Day! I hope you have lots of fun today with some friends and loved ones.

Maybe you could laugh together with your friends and play some games. And of course have a birthday cake and some presents.

Just remember that Jesus' love and care is the best present of all! Nothing can compare with that, Honey! You will never find anyone who loves you more than Jesus does! He's proudly looking down on you today and everyday and listening to see if you will spend a quiet few minutes thanking Him for His Goodness!

Happy Birthday, Honey!
