

HOW MIKE LEARNED A BIBLE VERSE

“Thy Word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against Thee.”
Psalm 119:11

“I can’t learn this Bible verse,” said Mike. Learning was hard for Mike. His sister Mary had no trouble at all, but Mike did.

“Why don’t you study the way Mary does?” Mike’s grandmother asked him.

“No two people are alike,” said his mother. “We love Mary the way she is, and we love Mike the way he is. Book learning is easier for Mary, but being happy and friendly is easier for Mike.”

Then Mike tried to learn that verse again. “Which Bible verse is it?” his mother asked.

“This one,” said Mike, and read it to her: “Thy Word have I hid in mine heart that I might not sin against Thee.”

“Let’s see if I can make it easier for you,” said Mike’s father, who was listening. “This verse tells of good things in a good place for a good reason. Which is the good thing and the good place and the good reason?”

Mike read the verse again. “Thy Word have I hid in mine heart that I might not sin against Thee.” “God’s Word; is the Good thing?”

“Yes, go on,” said his father. “Thy Word have I hid in mine heart,” he read. “That must be the good place; my heart.” “And what is the good reason for hiding the good thing in the good place?” his father asked. “That I might not sin against God.” That’s the good reason,” said Mike.

Now Mike knew the three parts: the Good thing, in a Good place, for a Good reason.

With that help Mike could easily say the verse from memory. What’s more, he also learned what the verse teaches. He learned that God’s Word in his heart would keep him from sinning.
