

IF WE ARE FORGIVEN WHY DO WE STILL LET THE DEVIL ACCUSE US?

Is the devil still telling you just how bad you are for what you have done in the past and you just can't seem to get past it? Do you find it hard to forgive yourself for your past sins? Do they just seem too awful for you to believe that even if you have asked for forgiveness that they are buried in the deepest sea? you just can't seem to leave them there? "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us!" Psalm 103:12

Kick the devil out in Jesus Name and continue to kick him out until He leaves you alone; and whenever He tries to put guilt on you again in the future, just tell him to get lost and remind him of his future! You are covered by the blood of Jesus and you have been washed as white as snow and you are now free!

"Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow! though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool!" Isaiah 1:18

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit."

Romans 8:1

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature! old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new!" II Corinthians 5:17

The following are Scriptures of affirmation so you can know that you no longer have to feel guilt or shame about your former sins: "For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more!" Hebrews 8:12

"I, even I, am He that blotteth out thy transgressions, for Mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins!" Isaiah 43:25

"And behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment."

"And stood at His feet behind Him weeping, and began to wash His feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed His feet, and anointed them with the ointment."

"Now when the Pharisee's which had bidden Him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth Him: for she is a sinner."

"Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master say on."

"There was a certain creditor which had two debtors; the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty."

"And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell Me therefore, which of them will love Him most?"

"Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom He forgave most. And He said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged."

"And He turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest Me no water for my feet: but she hath washed My feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head."

"Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet."

"My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed My feet with ointment" "Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many are forgiven; for she loved much; but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little!"

"And He said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven." "Thy faith hath saved thee. go in peace!" Luke 7:37-48, 50

I'm sure that if you have been forgiven of your sins, which you have if you asked for forgiveness, that you love Him much! So, you needn't feel guilty anymore and beat yourself up with you past sins, no matter what they are! Jesus can make the vilest sinner clean! and we are all the vilest sinner! Just one sin is too much and has to covered by Jesus' blood!

Then there was the woman caught in adultery. When everyone that accused her withdrew in shame because they couldn't bring themselves to stone her because they were convicted that they were just as bad: this is what happened.....

"When Jesus had lifted up Himself, and saw none but the woman, He said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go and sin no more!" No more guilt! No more shame! John 8:10, 11

So, who is the devil that he should accuse us and “if our hearts condemn us, God is greater than our hearts!” I John 3:21

Jesus said, “Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.” John 14:29

“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in Me.”

“In My Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.”

“And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.” John 14:1, 2

Jesus said, “Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what His Lord doeth: but I have called you friends! for all things that I have heard of My Father I have made known unto you.” John 15:15

If you are a child of God, how can you than think you need to carry around guilt and shame, when Jesus wants you to be peaceful now! He doesn’t condemn you so why should you still be in bondage?

If the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed!” Jn. 8:36

Jesus came to “heal the broken hearted, to set at liberty them that are bruised.

(crushed) Luke 4:18

“Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty!” II Corinthians 3:17

Don’t let the devil put that stuff on you anymore! Reject those thoughts every time and they will come less and less often! Be persistent. “Submit yourselves therefore unto God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you!”

James 4:7

Jesus loves you and He wants you to have joy and peace all the time!!

“What shall we say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?”

“He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not freely give us all things!” Romans 8:31, 32, including freedom from guilt and condemnation!

“Nay, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us! Romans 8:37 “Loved us” means that He loved us even before we were born!

“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee, because he trusteth in Thee!” Isaiah 26:3

“Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” Romans 5:1

“For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees shall clap their hands.” Isaiah 55:12

“Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.” Ps. 119:165

“He shall enter into peace they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.” Isaiah 57:2

“For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost!” Romans 14:17

“But the meek shall inherit the earth; and delight themselves in the abundance of peace!” Psalm 37:11

“Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.” II Corinthians 13:11

“Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost!” Roman 15:13

Don’t forget to praise Jesus continually and He will lift you up out of all your guilt and the condemnation of the devil!

“By Him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to His Name!” Hebrews 13:15

“I will bless the Lord at all times! His praise shall continually be in my mouth!”

Psalm 147:1

“Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day! But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more!” Psalm 71:8, 14
