

If you said "No" to the question on the cover, why did you? Are you uncertain that God would accept you? Do you think you've done too many bad things to get into Heaven?

If you said "Yes", why did you? Do you think you're good enough to get into Heaven? Do you think that God will let everyone into Heaven? Do you think that any religion will get you there?

You'd better be sure about your answer, because eternity is a long time to spend somewhere-and that's exactly how long you'll be spending in Heaven -or Hell.

Hell?! Yes, I said Hell. Hell exists. The Bible talks about a place of torment after death in these verses: Matt 25:41, Matt 3:12, Dan. 12:2, Mark 9:44-49, Luke 16:23, 24Rev. 14:10,11, and Rev. 20:10. Hell exists.

But the Bible also talks a lot about Heaven. The question is, who goes where? To explain this, first you need to understand the concept of sin.

The Bible says "sin is lawlessness" in IJohn 3:4. So to understand sin, we need to know what the law is. The Bible also says that "the law had said, "You shall not covet." in Rom. 7:7. And "You shall not covet" is in the Ten Commandments. So the Ten Commandments must be at least part of the law!

GUILTY!

And so is everyone else. "For all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God."
Rom. 3:23

God never sinned, and never will. Sinners cannot get into Heaven! They deserve death! "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." Rom. 6:23
Eternal life in Heaven is a gift- You can't earn it by being good enough. You can get it, no matter how bad you are. But how? "In Christ Jesus our Lord"- The only way to not get the wages of sin -death- is because someone already died for you: Jesus. He never sinned, so he was a perfect ransom for all of us.

Just accept the gift by praying a prayer like this:

"God, I know I'm a sinner, and I know Jesus took my place on death row--and rose to life again by your Holy Spirit--and that I can have eternal life in Heaven and start living real life here on earth. I accept your gift in the name of Jesus, Amen."

Now real life starts! You can live for God! Your instruction manual is the Bible. You are now part of a community called the Church. Get involved in a Church and find out more!
--So who goes to Hell? The people who won't accept Jesus's gift of life. They're sitting on death row, and not letting someone take their place. That's why I gave you this tract- to show you the way out of death row.
