seek and to save that which was lost." Christ came to earth for one purpose, "to Luke 19:10, tells us that Jesus Again, the bible has a clear answer. do we get out of this predicament? right mind would want to be. So, how to Hell-a place where no one in their God's help, the Bible says we will go will—where will we go? Without "What if" we die - and we after death, Heaven or Hell. us that there are only two destinations half, we are doomed. The Bible tells some sort of intervention on our be-Bible makes it clear that, apart from leaves all of us in a difficult spot. The According to the Bible, that thinking we know better than God. way. Our selfishness deceives us into want to do things our way, not God's

Titus 3:5 describes Jesus Christ as the "mediator between God and man."

The Bible tells us that Jesus Christ left Heaven, became a man, and lived a perfect life—something none of us could do. Then, He offered Himself as a perfect sacrifice. Jesus' lifeless body was taken from the cross and sealed in a stone tomb.

Everyone assumed that that was the end of Jesus. But, three days later, to show that He was satisfied with Jesus' sacrifice, God raised Jesus from the dead. Later, Jesus returned to Heaven, where He is today.

Jesus Christ suffered and died in our place. God punished His Son for all of our selfishness, rebellion, and arrogance. He provided the divine intervention without which we are hopelessly lost.

Unfortunately, Adam and Eve disobeyed. As a result, immediately, they died spiritually; and, eventually, they died physically.

The Bible tells us that when Adam disobeyed, his judgement was passed on to all of his descendants—that's us. (Romans 5:12) That's why we all eventually die.

That is also why we do not need to be taught how to lie, cheat, and steal. It is part of our nature to do them. These are acts of selfishness, and selfishness are acts of selfishness, and selfishness is what separates us from God. We enjoy lite to its fullest. They could do anything they liked, with one proviso, they must not eat of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. "What if" they did? God told them that they would "surely die." (Genesis 1:17)

They had everything they needed to placed them in a perfect environment. God created Adam and Eve and the Bible describes for us in Genesis. wrong? That is exactly the situation tree to choose between right and a perfect environment where he was were perfect? What it man lived in What if everything in the world pretty much takes care of its self. assume that what happens after death that "what it" because they naively will you be? Many people never ask For example, after you die, where do not look far enough into the future. the future; unfortunately, many of us "What its" force us to look into or billfold to avoid other "what ifs." ont cars and houses and guard our purse tor the unexpected "what its." We lock its" that involve accidents, disease, We buy insurance for the "what who will be their mate. child's education, their vocation, and cation spot. We deliberate about our We carefully select the ideal vatry to avoid those with negative ones. that have positive consequences and We look forward to the "what ifs" ".sli ishw" iuo of us are usually more serious about sting new products or processes, most Except for those who work at creone be able to afford a money tree? money grew on trees? Would everywe watch IV while sleeping? What it eyes in the back of our head? Could rain cotton candy? What if we had It clouds were sugar would they and other misfortunes. We save money

Jesus Christ offers the only way out. That leaves only one thing for us to do. We can either accept or reject His provision. It's as simple as that.

So, how does one accept God's gift? Talk to Him. Tell Him that you recognize that you are lost. That you know you are a sinner and deserve Hell. Tell Him that you believe that Jesus paid the debt for your sin and you want to accept His gift of forgiveness. Then, thank Him for His forgiveness.

If you will do this, you will not see flashes of lightening or hear voices or bells ringing, but you can be sure there is a celebration in Heaven when God writes your name in The Book of Life.

The Bible says that, for those trusting Jesus Christ, death means "to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. (II Corinthians 5:8)

Will you accept God's gift of salvation right now?

There is one more "what if" that you should think about. What if this is your last chance to be sure that you are on your way to Heaven?

What If?

It's a game children play.
What if people were the color of the rainbow? If a father were blue and a mother were red, would their children be purple?