

Jairus' Daughter & Woman with the Flow of Blood

Beginning in the Gospel of Mark 5:21:

And when Jesus was passed (crossed) over again to the other side, much people gathered unto Him: and he was nigh unto the sea. 22 And, behold, there cometh one the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw Jesus, he fell at His' feet, 23 and besought Him greatly, (begged Him earnestly) saying, My little daughter lay at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay hands on her, that she may be healed: and she shall live. 24 And Jesus went with him and much people (a multitude) followed Him, and thronged Him.

25 And a certain woman which had an issue (flow) of blood twelve years, 26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered (no better) but rather grew worse. 27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched His garment. 28 For she said, "If I may touch His clothes, I shall be Whole." 29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. 30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that virtue had gone out of Him, turned Him about in the press (crowd), and said, "Who touched my clothes?"

Beginning in the Gospel of Mark 5:21:

And when Jesus was passed (crossed) over again to the other side, much people gathered unto Him: and he was nigh unto the sea. 22 And, behold, there cometh one the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw Jesus, he fell at His' feet, 23 and besought Him greatly, (begged Him earnestly) saying, My little daughter lay at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay hands on her, that she may be healed: and she shall live. 24 And Jesus went with him and much people (a multitude) followed Him, and thronged Him.

25 And a certain woman which had an issue (flow) of blood twelve years, 26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered (no better) but rather grew worse. 27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched His garment. 28 For she said, "If I may touch His clothes, I shall be Whole." 29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. 30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that virtue had gone out of Him, turned Him about in the press (crowd), and said, "Who touched my clothes?"

31 And His disciples said unto Him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, "Who touched me?" 32 And He looked round about Him to see her that had done this thing. 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before Him, and told Him all the truth . 34 And Jesus said unto her, "Daughter, thy Faith hath made thee Whole; Go in Peace, and be whole from thy plague. 35 While He yet spake there came a ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said,

Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further? 36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, "Be Not Afraid, Only Believe." 37 And He suffered (allowed) no man to follow Him, except Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. 38 And Jesus cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly. 39 And when He was come in, He saith unto them, "Why make ye this ado (commotion) and weep? The damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. 40 But they laughed Him to scorn. But when Jesus had put them all out, He taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with Him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And Jesus took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, "Talitha Cumi: which is, being interpreted Damsel, I say unto thee, Arise." 42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment. 43 And Jesus charged them (commanded) them straitly (strictly) that no man should know it; and commanded that something be given her to eat.
