

Help is Sure

I feel so rejected, discouraged, and all alone.
No letters, or visits, or calls on my phone.

I am so empty, depressed, and down.
I sense that nobody else is around.

How can I go on with nowhere else to turn?
Please let someone show a little concern.

So many people live upon this earth.
I'm sure someone must know I have some worth.

*Dear friend, I do care and I love you so much.
Please cast on Me your burdens. Man is not the right crutch.*

*I am Creator; I made you in My image so you can honor Me.
It is the sin in your life and in the world that is your enemy.*

*So don't let this world depress you with all its sin and woe.
In Me you will find strength, because your sorrow I do know.*

*I had a plan from the beginning, so I died for sin and guilt.
Please accept that I love
you and by Me all hope is built.*

*You see, I didn't let the grave
keep me underground.
Victory over death is where true
peace and joy are found.*

*Turn, my child, from rejection
and feeling oh so blue.
Repent, come to Me, and I will make you new.*

II Corinthians 5:17

“Therefore if any man be in Christ he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold all things are become new.”
