

HAPPY
BIRTHDAY

Oh, Wonderful, Your Birthday is here and we get to celebrate it with you!
You are so cute and precious to us,
Sweetness!

I can't wait to spend time with you and watch you open your presents and eat some of your birthday cake with you! And if I can't come and be with you, I will be thinking about you all day and hoping you are having a joyful day, Sweetness.

But Jesus will be there along with maybe your Mom and Dad and He wants you to spend some time with Him in a very special way.

He wants you to spend some quiet time with Him and tell Him what's on your mind and on your little heart.

Just talk to Him and tell Him that you love
Him and all about your day.

He will be waiting to hear your sweet voice every time you talk to Him, Sweetness! He loves you so very much! Don't ever forget that!
