

"I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE"

John 6:27-35

This is a quote from a bible scripture that exemplifies this image I was blessed with of Jesus Christ, our lord and savior. There is a beach, of the whitest sand you can imagine, and in the middle is the man who is the embodiment of everything you could possibly want in a man, and handsome, too! He is kneeling on the sand, and I was taken up in the spirit so there was a beautiful, fullest, richest, clearest picture of Jesus.

He is adorned perfectly in a creamy white sash and a dark blue stunningly vivid robe. There are two perfect folds in the robe. He has two identical brown sandals, that fit his feet perfectly and accentuate his masculine features. Jesus is kneeling on this beach in a perfect stance so that his hands are on either side of him, using them with two identical circular motions to draw two identical shapes of loaves of bread in the sand. He's Caucasian but he has a tan, and he has long brown hair that is wavy and beautiful and shiny and bouncy, with a natural look and a healthy sheen.

He looks up at me and smiles friendly, and as time lapses in on itself and happens before my eyes as the changes unfold before me, and the two identical shapes of loaves of bread, drawn with precise perfect movements of the hand. This is a beautiful first experience with Jesus, and he knows all things are created in nature by god for all human beings , for all human beings who dwell in his word are his disciples walking in the heavenly sunshine stunningly clear white sand of his glory and in his image sustains life and beauty and oneness with him.

“Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work? Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. (John 6:27-35)
