

“THE GOLDEN PAVED STREETS OF HEAVEN”

“The new Jerusalem “John
14:1-4

This is another heavenly vision of the golden paved streets of heaven, and Jesus Christ is featured in this one, too.

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

“You know the way to the place where I am going.”
(John 14:1-4)

Take this one for a good example: There I am, my spirit traveled all the way to heaven to behold the golden paved streets, solid and sturdy as glass, or marble. Jesus is standing there in front of me, looking right at me with a crown of thorns that are shaped like stars. Jesus is wearing a white robe and a dark brown, red sash.

Jesus is a little different every time I see him but always suited for the occasions. There is a heavenly glow around us that is emitting a reflection on the golden paved streets.

There are two angels being ordered around in heaven, which is how the checks and balances must work in heaven. The two angels were being ordered to help some people in ministry to teach people about the gospel and Jesus Christ as their personal lord and savior. He is staring right at my spirit, and there is a greater sense of purpose about Jesus to understand his kingdom and his lessons about heavenly things.

“And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, newJerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.” (Revelation 21:1-3)

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”
(Revelation 21:4)

“And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.” (Revelation 21:14)
