

“Trapdoor to heaven”

“Laughter” This is my first vision of Jesus, and he looks like he’s in a TV drama show. He has beautiful stunning clear white skin, and long dark brown wavy hair, and he appears to have his attention focused on something else beside him, and he’s laughing.

“Trapdoor to heaven” This is another glimpse of glory I had. There was this vision I had and there was this trapdoor to heaven, and it was opened to me, and I was at the bottom, looking up to see my savior at the top. There was stunning clear blue sky, and two white clouds in perfect shapes. Jesus Christ himself, sheer and towering above me in his gait of heavenly certainty. He wore a white robe that was a gown, and I could not see his hands because his robe was so long. there was a blue sash, and he had those stunningly adoringly long locks. You could see the heavens being opened to you, and Jesus was there welcoming me at the threshold of the gait.

“The Lightened Hallway”

There is another short vision of Jesus Christ walking in this darkened hallway with a lamp that had a golden glow around it, and it lightened up the whole tunnel I could see in my field of vision. Jesus was adorned in a light brown sash and a brown robe, as he is walking in this hallway lighting this passage/tunnel.

WHAT HEAVEN WAS LIKE

This is a lesson about Jesus and every single one of us had an individual personal friendship with Jesus in heaven, and all of us knew him personally before we had our spirits come down to earth. There was great fellowship and familiarity in him, and he was carrying me in his arms, because he is a great provider and protector for all of humanity, our lord and savior. there was humility and kindness in Jesus as a friend that's always been there. There was a great big bag full of stars and three big stars in the cosmos.

“Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven”. (Matthew 5:14-16)
