

Neither do I condemn thee

*From the Mount of Olives to the temple Jesus came Teaching His people the truth and the way
The Scribes and Pharisees came also that day
With an adulterous woman to Jesus they would blame*

*No trial was she offered as they threw her to the ground
Their hearts filled with hatred no mercy to be found
We caught her in sin on this we all agree
For by sin she broke the law and cannot go free*

*With rocks in hand only her sins could they see
Ready to stone her if only Jesus would agree
He stooped to the ground and began to write
If you're without sin throw your stones with all your might*

*Though weak and helpless her life was a waste
But by the mighty power of God He would become her stay
The crowd was still angry as Jesus foiled their plan
Never a man spoke like this so they turned and ran*

*Where are your accusers Jesus said with a plea
Nowhere to be found LORD for none do I see
Your sins are forgiven and cast into the sea
Sin no more for neither do I condemn thee*

*For all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God
The accuser of this world hates the ground you trod
Satan's goal and ploy is to tempt you with sin
But the Son of Man came to save and cleanse*

*Your life may seem hopeless when judged by man today
But Jesus Christ is light He's the truth and the way
Accept Him as your Savior and to Him you will cling
Where are your accusers neither do I condemn thee*

*Inspired by My Lord and Savior Jesus Christ
To him I give all the Glory Honor and Praise*

George L. Fields

Ephesians 2:8-9

05/07/2009