

Nine years of Guilt and Shame

This is my Testimony: My husband and I lived together for 2 years before we were married. I became pregnant twice in that time, and both times I chose to have an Abortion. My husband didn't want a family, and I was afraid of losing him, and of being on my own with a child. I was being Selfish. Deep inside I wanted my babies because as soon as I realized that I was pregnant, I stopped drinking and I took extra care of myself, hoping there would be some way to have this baby; but I had the Abortion anyway.

One of them was at an Abortion Clinic and one was at a Hospital, and both were suction abortions. At the clinic, the first thing they asked me was, did I have my check to pay for it! I had hoped for some counseling from someone there, but they only explained the procedure. They never asked any of the women if they were sure of their decision to have an abortion either, or referred to the Life that I was carrying as a Baby.

I felt I would sweep through the whole thing very quickly, until I was suddenly on the Table. I knew that I would go to Hell for what I had done. I held a lot of resentment and blame toward my husband, and I felt that he "didn't love me enough." We didn't tell anyone else. He felt guilty too, but always held it in pretty much. The main thing is that God forgave me, and I was finally able to find Peace after Nine years of guilt and shame.

I took responsibility for what I had done, and no longer had any bitterness towards my husband over this. No one can deal with this, apart from Christ! I never had any children, and now never will. I am very angry about how the Pro-Death people deceive women who are hurting and vulnerable. They need the Truth about Abortion, and they need to be told that there are godly alternatives that they can choose that are Godly Answers. They can choose Life, instead of Death for their unborn Babies!

The Bible says, "Thou shalt not Kill," and Abortion is Murder in God's sight; we need to be fully aware of that, and take heed to His Commandments, and the Word of God for our life.
