

WHEN I FORGOT THE HAIR ON MY HEAD-TRUE STORY!

Sometimes we wonder why God allows losses, pain, and suffering come into our lives despite our faithfulness to Him. Well, I really lost both my parents in a tragic car crash on a highway and I started blaming God for these unforeseen sudden deaths, and my parent's money was taken away by the bank, when my parents died, due to the bank loans my parents were using to work.

And even my younger siblings were taken away and taken I don't know where. My strong compassion today for HURTING Souls, is not because I have been through a lot in life. No! No! No! My passion for the hurting, for the depressed, the failures, and those in the battle front of life's battle is because my Father God, has allowed me to taste Pain, Rejection, Shame, Desertion, Suffering, False Accusation, Loneliness, Abandonment, Betrayal, Lack, Etc.

DO YOU KNOW THAT THERE WAS A SEASON IN MY LIFE WHEN I FORGOT TO BARB MY HAIR?

The hair grew so "bushy" because of life's battles and I forgot the Hair on my Head! And there came a season that I could not afford kerosene and I had to beg carpenters to give us sawdusts to cook?

When sawdust was no more available, I started sending my little brother, Named Benjamin or Benny, who found me, and lived with me for awhile until he ran away, to go into nearby bushes to cut firewood because I couldn't even afford to buy Firewood! and I couldn't even spell "GAS"!

And there was a season when this same Benny had to sell water on the street before we could get money due to my injured hips where I couldn't do heavy work, and I still can't. Oh, those dark few years of my life! My story then was an IRONY because in this same town that I lived, I had loaned money to needy friends, and helped friends in so many ways when my parents were alive. And then, the very friends who I had helped before saw me and laughed at me, and they all ignored me!
