

A C.E.O started a company with two partners (his Son and Best friend.)

They employed two workers (a man and woman). Their two new employees enjoyed working them.

The C.E.O liked them and treated them well. He gave them all they needed and paid them very well.

Unfortunately, a wicked ex employee did a deal with the new employees and deceived them, as a result in this, they were sacked from the company.

One day, the C.E.O's son noticed his father really missed his former employees. So he told his father he will go and search for them and bring them back.

The C.E.O's son found his father's former employees working for the wicked ex employee. The man treated them badly. (They had signed a contract with him). So he overworked them and didn't pay them well.

The C.E.O's son got a job in the company and worked as a messenger. He helped the employees with their work and other areas they needed help.

He told them about his fathers company and how eager the C.E.O is to take them back regardless of any mistake they have made.

The bad ex employee heard and sacked the CEO'S son but...

On the third day, the C.E.O's son came with a new contract and asked anyone who wanted to work for the C.E.O to come and join him.

God is the C.E.O

Jesus is his son.

The Holy Spirit is the C.E.O's best friend

You and I are the employees.

Satan is the wicked ex employee.

Are you not tired of working for the enemy? He treats you badly and makes you do things don't want to do.

Come over to the C.E.O's company, he loves you, misses you and wants you to work for him.

Are you ready?

Just say this simple prayer.

God Almighty I have sinned, forgive me for all the bad things I have done. Jesus Christ I give you my life. Please accept me as your own, now and forever in Jesus name I pray .
