“And Jesus spoke a Parable: 2 “The kingdom of Heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, 3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.”

4 “Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.” 5 “But they made light of it, and went their ways, on to his farm, another to his merchandise: 6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.”

7 “But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and He sent forth His armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.” 8 “Then saith He to his servants. The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.” 9 “Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.” 10 “So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found,

And he was speechless!” 13 “Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”
