

PARENTS

We are going to study about what the Holy Bibles says about parents. It has some important things to say about that subject that we need to know.

In the book of Ephesians, Chapter 6, Verse 1, it says: "Children obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right."

In the book of Colossians Chapter 3, Verse 20 the Bible says, "Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is wellpleasing unto the Lord."

We want to please the Lord, don't we. If we obey Jesus He will be so pleased with you and He will bless you too!

Verse two says, "Honour (have healthy respect for, and treat them with respect) thy father and mother: which is the First commandment with promise; "That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth."

Parents are far from perfect and they all make mistakes but we need to still obey them and treat them with respect.

This commandment has a promise! That if we obey our parents and treat them with respect, we will have a long life while we are here on this earth, so it must is very important!

It may be very difficult to do that sometimes because it doesn't seen fair what your parents might ask you to do, but they are wiser than you, and you need to obey them.

----cut here----

PARENTS

We are going to study about what the Holy Bibles says about parents. It has some important things to say about that subject that we need to know.

In the book of Ephesians, Chapter 6, Verse 1, it says: "Children obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right."

In the book of Colossians Chapter 3, Verse 20 the Bible says, "Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is wellpleasing unto the Lord."

We want to please the Lord, don't we. If we obey Jesus He will be so pleased with you and He will bless you too!

Verse two says, "Honour (have healthy respect for, and treat them with respect) thy father and mother: which is the First commandment with promise; "That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth."

Parents are far from perfect and they all make mistakes but we need to still obey them and treat them with respect.

This commandment has a promise! That if we obey our parents and treat them with respect, we will have a long life while we are here on this earth, so it must is very important!

It may be very difficult to do that sometimes because it doesn't seen fair what your parents might ask you to do, but they are wiser than you, and you need to obey them.

In verse Four, parents are told: "Provoke not your children to wrath (anger) but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." And, I'm sure they are trying to do that.

And in Colossians, Chapter 3, Verse 21 the Bible says: Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged." So God is telling parents to be fair in their discipline to children.

And in Colossians 3:23 it also says that "whatever you do, do it heartily as to the Lord, and not unto men." Whatever you are doing for your parents, it's the same in Jesus's eyes as if you are doing unto Him!

Jesus is your Daddy too, (and as your mother too) and we are to turn to Him too and ask for His help with everything, including helping us to love and respect, and obey our natural parents.
(Jesus is your everything: Father, mother, brother, sister, husband)

I'm sure you love your parents very much. That is good and necessary. When they don't seem like they are being fair, give them the benefit of the doubt...just do what they say, asking Jesus to help you to be at peace with it.

It is sooo important to ask Jesus for help with everything in your life, and just believe and trust that everything will be all right. Don't give up no matter how things seem or look....KEEP TRUSTING AND BELIEVING that Jesus will help if you ask Him. He will answer at just the right time and in the Best way.

You can ask as often as you want and when you do, remember to always praise Him and thank Him for the answer.

Your Friend-in-Christ,

www.tracts.com/Karin'sTractPage.html

In verse Four, parents are told: "Provoke not your children to wrath (anger) but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." And, I'm sure they are trying to do that.

And in Colossians, Chapter 3, Verse 21 the Bible says: Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged." So God is telling parents to be fair in their discipline to children.

And in Colossians 3:23 it also says that "whatever you do, do it heartily as to the Lord, and not unto men." Whatever you are doing for your parents, it's the same in Jesus's eyes as if you are doing unto Him!

Jesus is your Daddy too, (and as your mother too) and we are to turn to Him too and ask for His help with everything, including helping us to love and respect, and obey our natural parents.
(Jesus is your everything: Father, mother, brother, sister, husband)

I'm sure you love your parents very much. That is good and necessary. When they don't seem like they are being fair, give them the benefit of the doubt...just do what they say, asking Jesus to help you to be at peace with it.

It is sooo important to ask Jesus for help with everything in your life, and just believe and trust that everything will be all right. Don't give up no matter how things seem or look....KEEP TRUSTING AND BELIEVING that Jesus will help if you ask Him. He will answer at just the right time and in the Best way.

You can ask as often as you want and when you do, remember to always praise Him and thank Him for the answer.

Your Friend-in-Christ,

www.tracts.com/Karin'sTractPage.html