

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Doesn't it look like Pooh and Piglet are having a good time! I'll bet you would like to go fishing too! Maybe you Dad or a Friend would take you sometime.

But it's time for another birthday and you need to be thinking about that. I hope you have a really joyful birthday, Honey! Full of fun and laughter with balloons, and a cake, and cards, and a few presents as you love one another in sharing it.

There is someone who will also be present on your day and He wants you to know just how very much He loves you, Honey. He loves you more than you can ever imagine! It would make Him so happy if you would spend a few minutes with Him and thank Him for all your blessings He has blessed you with, and telling Him that you love Him too. The Holy Bible says that "we love Him because He first loved us!" 1 John 4:19

Happy Birthday, Honey!
