

ROMANS CHAPTER TWELVE

1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And be not conformed to this world:

but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God. 3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think: but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man a measure of Faith. 4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office (function): 5 So we being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having gifts then according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; 7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; 8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation (hypocrisy). Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. 10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring (giving preference) to one another; 11 Not slothful (lazy, slack) in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; 12 Rejoice in hope, patient in tribulation; continuing (steadfastly) instant in prayer; 13 Distributing to the necessity of the saints; given to hospitality

14 Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not. 15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. 16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not (don't set your mind) on high things, but condescend (associate) with men of low estate (the humble) Be not wise in your own conceits (estimation). 17 Recompense (repay) to no man evil for evil. Provide (have regard for) things honest in the sight of men. 18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. 20 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. 21 Be not overcome with evil, but overcome evil with good.
