

Translators Desired

Do you read and write a language that you did not see on the previous page?

If so, would you be willing to volunteer to translate the one-page gospel message from the previous page?

If so, please email me at LarryPKent@gmail.com

Did you notice the Smiles version of the tract on the previous page? It uses funny one-liners to break the ice, making it very easy to distribute the tract to just about everyone.

Would you be willing to provide culturally relevant one-liners for any of the languages on the previous page that does not have a “Smiles” version?

If so, please email me at LarryPKent@gmail.com
