

SUPER MAX

Supermax and Max are both great prayer warriors. Max believes he has recieved it. And confesses that he will recieve exactly what he has asked for and that settles it.

But the moment something goes wrong Max looses faith when he sees things are not right the way he prayed they would be. Supermax also believes he has recieved it but then he goes out and makes it happen

His philosophy is "God helps those who help themselves and I claim it by faith".
Supermax does everything not just the things Max thinks are right.

When supermax hears a prophesy he says it's for me.
And then he goes out and tries to make it happen.
People fall over in the aisles when he goes out the front at church.....

Who are you max or supermax?

We all do.

We know not what a day brings forth.
