

TEACHING DOLLS TO PRAY

“That the generations to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare (tell) them to their children: that they might set their Hope in God.” Psalm 78, verses 6 and 7.

Little Sandy had five little dolls. One day she had them all lined up along the side of her bed, on their knees, with their faces against the bed.

“What are they doing?” Sandy’s mom asked her.

“Mommy they’re praying,” said Sandy, surprised that her mom would ask.

For what are they praying?” asked her mom. “They’re praying for my friend Joyce, to get better, so I can play with her again.” Sandy answered.

Let’s all pray,” said her mom and she took little Sandy on her lap.

“You and I and the dollies, let’s all pray for Joyce.”

“Dear Jesus,” they said, “please make Joyce all well, and help her to be patiently waiting for Your touch, and rest in You.”
Amen.

"I'm glad you pray for others," said Sandy's mom, and I'm glad for something else, too."
"For what Mommie?" asked Sandy.
"For wanting your dollies to pray. When you are grown up and Jesus gives you children, I hope that you will teach them all to pray."

"I will," said Sandy," and I'll want them to know the Bible stories, and all about Jesus and everything written in His Word about how to live."

Her mother was glad that Sandy was planning to be a good Christian mother. God wants His children to teach their children all about what God said in His Word. Do you know why?" The psalm writer, Maschil of Asaph says, "So that they will set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments."
Psalm 78, verse 7

Questions to talk about:

Dear Jesus, please fill our minds with Your thinking and plans for us, so that when we are older, we will do what You have told us to do. Remind all parents to teach their children what You have done for them, so that they will trust in Your love and they will keep Your Commandments. Help us to do this also; in Jesus Name. Amen."
