I am saved just as I am.

I hear this alot. People just assumed they are saved because they made an effort at one time to be saved, did a few things they thought they should do because of what they were told by some denomination. They didn't bother to check it out in the Bible whether these things were true or not, and whether they were obeying the Bible.

Now most are not seeking God's Word or God for further growth and guidance. They just go on their way and live their life the way they want.

Some are trying to serve God knowing only false doctrine and in their flesh, (without the Baptism of the Holy Spirit). They are trying to obey God with their heart, and it's so hard doing it without the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, they get discouraged and just aren't able to.

They usually don't listen when you try to tell them they need to be born again and receive the Holy Spirit. Jn. 3. They say they received it at baptism; a lie they were told!

You have to ask and pray for the Holy Spirit. (Lu. 11:13) Read how they received the Holy Spirit in Acts.
