

The Table is Spread

*A new covenant was made a long time ago
In the upper room the twelve would go
One would betray Him and the rest would flee
When Jesus was arrested in the garden of Gethsemane*

*They slapped Him and beat Him and spit in His face
Treating the Son of God with the ultimate disgrace
They hammered nails in His hands and feet
When they crucified the LORD at dark Calvary*

*It is finished are the last words that He said
They pierced His side to make sure He was dead
For mankind's sins Jesus life was slain
To gain victory over death, hell, and the grave*

*In a borrowed tomb His body would lay
But three days later He rose from the grave
Alive and living He reigns forevermore
Don't harden your heart if He knocks on your door*

*The Table is Spread for all to see
Come and dine He said to me
I'm the one who began a work in you
And I'll be faithful to complete it too*

*He see's in us a work that's undone
To be more like Jesus God's only Son
Showing love and mercy with self control
Peace and contentment for the troubled soul*

*He said come and dine my table is spread
Feast on my word that your soul may be feed
I AM the fountain that flows from within
I AM the one who frees the soul from sin*

*Inspired by My Lord and Savior Jesus Christ
To him I give all the Glory Honor and Praise*

George L. Fields

Ephesians 2:8-9

04/07/2009

