

THIS IS HELL .... WHY
WOULD YOU WANT TO GO THERE?

Hell was never intended for man. But some are choosing to go there. You see, I have been there. I have personally felt the pains of the lost. The Lord has taken me there on several occasions, and has also let me experience their damnation. Picture this, someone takes a baseball bat and with one swift blow knocks everything out of your head that was worth knowing. The only thing left in your head is the knowledge of the Gospel...the knowledge that you are in hell, separated from anything good, that God is the author of.

The only other thing left in your head is that you have missed the boat, you have missed everything...you have missed life, and you have made the mistake of your life! And you have lost your very soul that was capable of experiencing God, and all His goodness, but you made a Choice; Not to consider your end while you had the time. You lay like a stone, totally powerless and under the authority of the devil completely, the one who does not love you or anyone. This is the soul without God: Lifeless, like a cold rock with everything gone. And then there's the agony! The Isolation is intense! And the Loneliness! You have been cast into an outer darkness that is so real, so tangible.

All your senses are alive...more alive than ever, but all you can know is that you came here of your own free will! There is No Hope here! You have lost everything, and there is no getting back. You are crying inside but there are no tears, but there is sorrow...a sorrow so deep and so pitiful! You have been reduced to the lowest form...the plan of the enemy. You are only a shell now holding a lost soul; and what could have been filled with God and all the glories of Heaven, but now you are in an unredeemable state. Worse than losing your best friend...worse sorrow than losing anything...you have lost the reason your were created! There is nothing like this sorrow, this loneliness...this darkness,...even the deepest pit on earth does not compare to it...for it is spiritual, and it is final...it is forever and forever!

One day I heard the Gospel put this way...

When Adam sinned and got separated from God because of his new sinful nature, the God of Love would not stand for it! He missed His fellowship with man and came up with a plan to reinstate man to Himself forever.

All the man would have to do is to believe in what Jesus did for us on the cross. He made it so easy for us not to go to this place called Hell!

I really like to put it that way. Now after everything we know about Hell, do you really want to go there...do you really want to lose your precious soul? It must be very valuable because the devil and God are fighting for it!

Now say this winning prayer, and don't lose your soul...give it to Jesus...He will keep it safe for you!

Lord Jesus, I am a sinner. But I believe that you died upon the Cross for me and that you shed your precious blood for the forgiveness of my sins. And I believe that on the third day you rose into Heaven to prepare a place for me.

I accept you now as my Savior, my Lord, my God, my Friend. Please come into my heart, Lord Jesus, and set me free from my sins. Heal me Lord...deliver me from all my problems. I love you Lord Jesus. Amen.

And after you accept Christ, tell others! God now lives inside of you, and He wants to do His ministry through you toward others. Serve God and witness the Gospel to everyone you meet, every way you know how!

Scripture references: "There is none that doeth good, No, Not One..."For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. Romans 3:12, 23. "But God commendeth (introduced) His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." "Much more then, being now justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath (hell) through Him." Romans 5:8,9
