

TRUTH OR DARE

Dare: I dare you to let the Bible get in the way of what you believe, to investigate the Man, Christ Jesus Himself, then come to your own honest conclusion without any preconceived notions or agendas because...

Truth: is exactly what He claimed to be. Your own entire eternal future hinges on just Who you say that He is. (Mt 16:15, Jn 14:16)

Many times I hear folks make statements about the bible or about the sayings of Jesus, yet I notice that most of these statements are based on hearsay or personal opinion. I used to do the same thing myself, until I actually opened up the bible and read it and thought about what I was reading.

I used the logic and reasoning skills that God gave me. What happened was that my religious views got totally shattered. I'll take truth over tradition any day. My hope and prayer for you is that you will, at the very least, get the question forever settled in your heart personally: 3	Who am I? Why am I here?          What's to become of me?          What's the point?          If you've found what God truly has to say about you, respond by obeying the gospel and trusting in Christ as your Savior. That's the necessary starting point.          If not, ask yourself this one last question if you find you're still in doubt or denial: "What more could God have done to convince me of His love for me?" 4	Stop waiting around and make a decision today to get real with God and find out the truth. Get some substance underneath your standpoint. Read the bible and take your time with it. You'll never regret it. Questions to          Heirforce@aol.com 5
